What's new?

- The work plan is structured around Specific Objectives
- Project management is not a work package anymore – section C.7 of the Application Form

All administrative and financial management obligations are not listed as mandatory activities as such, since they do not need to be listed in the Work plan of the Application Form, but they must nevertheless be considered in the implementation time and budget of each partner.

- Communication activities do not have a separate work package – embedded in the WPs
- Budget allocation per WP is not required in the Application Form
- Mandatory activities

Communication

- Project communication objectives shall be given for each thematic work package
- Communication activities:
 - Directly in the description of each “thematic” activity.
 - They can be stand alone activities only if they are relevant enough and of significant importance for the project. In this case, the title of the activity should be specific.
 - Avoid anything like “communication”.
- Communication deliverables

Same rules as for the other deliverables, include only the most significant ones
No deliverables such as “Newsletter”

Compulsory activities: Monitoring the project carbon footprint

- Step 1: reduce project carbon footprint by design!
- Step 2: calculate the project carbon footprint
- Step 3: aim to reduce your project emissions, and when feasible, offset

HOW?

- ✓ Methodology for calculation
- ✓ Online tool used for the monitoring and calculation of carbon emissions
- ✓ A range of recommendations for reduction

Deliverables

For each activity, applicants are likely to produce deliverables which they will need to plan and budget for. However, for the purposes of assessing the relevance of the project and monitoring its process, it is not necessary to list them all in the application form.

Only those deliverables directly related and meaningful to the results of the project and the ultimate goal and output of the activity or project shall be listed in the Application Form
